Firemen's Annual Fete

5,000 Attend Parade At Newell

The Northern Panhandle Shrine Club's colorful marching unit and the Oak Glen High School majorettes, leading the new Hancock County school's band, were among 40 entries in the Newell fire department's annual parade Wednesday night which attracted a crowd of 5,000. The department termed it the "best" parade in years, featuring five top high school bands, floats, fire apparatus and all-girl marching units. The 125-piece Oak Glen band, drew applause as it marched by the judges' stand, playing a snappy rendition of "Down By the Ohio."

Making their debut in area parades the Oak Glen band members wore white shoes, dark trousers and white shirts and appeared to please the crowd with precision marching.

The band was organized only this month for Chester, Newell and New Cumberland students who will attend the new consolidated school in Pughtown this fall. John Larry Clark of Newell served as head director, assisted by J. Warren Campbell of Chester and Floyd Lancia of New Cumberland.

The East Liverpool High School Band, directed by Vince Maola, appeared in the line of march for the first time in several years, while other bands included Stanton Local of

House Plans 'Fair Work' Practice Bill

Rights Item Stated For Floor Prior To Negro Protest Bid

WASHINGTON (AP)—A controversial fair employment practices bill apparently is going to be the first civil rights measure to be acted on in the House this session.

Plans are being made to bring it to the floor before the Aug. 28 mass demonstration in Washington called by Negro civil rights leaders.

The chances are the administration's omnibus civil rights bill will still be making slow progress through committees then and congressional leaders would like to be able to show the demonstrators something more substantial in the way of action.

Pinning their hopes to the FEPC bill could be a risky gamble, how-

Capt. Barton requested permission from Mayor Bert H. Good to bring the band to the city for a concert in his "home-town."

The colorfully uniformed band is slated to park in the Walnut St.

The GOP 'Race'

Rockefeller Aides Seem Calm

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Strategists in Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's political planning division take calmly the accounts of Sen. Barry Goldwater's growing strength in such states as Arkansas, Maryland and Idaho.

The New York governor and the Arizona senator are the two men most prominently mentioned for the Republican nomination for president next year, although neither has formally announced as a candidate.

Many observers think Goldwater is well ahead. Even Rockefeller's most ardent supporters concede the governor lost ground this year when he married the divorced mother of four children.

Nevertheless Rockefeller is mounting a strong campaign for the nomination.

Reports of Goldwater strength are interpreted here not by numbers of states but by delegate strength in the nominating convention next July.

Details such as these occupy practical politicians, rather than the liberal vs. conservative philosophical debate that is attracting public attention.

There will be 53 delegations at the convention—the 50 states plus the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands. They will comprise 1,308 delegates. A majority of 655 votes will be needed for nomination.

This is the way the Rockefeller strategists view the situation.

Goldwater's main strength lies in the South, Southwest and Midwest. Give him every vote in every delegation from the 28 states in those regions and he would have 573—short of the nomination.

The nine big industrial states—New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and California—will have a total of 512 votes. Rockefeller is counting on strong support from them.

He also looks to the 70 votes in the rest of New England, the 60 votes in the Western states of Oregon, Washington and Colorado and to the 37 votes in the combined delegations from Alaska, Hawaii, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

Other states are harder to classify, even in general terms. The arithmetical exercises assume, of course, a convention showdown between Rockefeller and Goldwater.

4 New Aspirants File In Non-Partisan Ballot

Four new candidates for non-partisan ballot spots in the Nov. 5 general election were listed today by the County Election Board.

The new aspirants are: Maine Hall, for Rogers village clerk; Cecil R. Carter, for Board of Trustees of Public Affairs at Salineville; Clyde Stratton, for Salem Township trustee; and Joseph K. Harding, for Fairfield Township trustee.

The new filings brought to 42 the number entered for posts in villages under 2,000 population, townships and school districts. The filing deadline is Aug. 7.

Defeat Given Scranton On Jobless Aid

Opposition Brings Delay For Revised Pennsylvania Plan

HARRISBURG, Pa. — Gov. William W. Scranton has recalled his controversial unemployment compensation reforms from the Legislature, marking his first major setback in office, and indicated a special session may be set in November on the measures.

The Republican governor could not muster sufficient votes for the reform bill in the House after pressure by organized labor and some industrialists upon legislators.

Gov. Scranton called for the bill to be resubmitted to the House.

In the interval between the present session and the special one, the Governor said he wants the Joint State Government Commission to make a thorough study of the compensation problem which has troubled Pennsylvania for years.

Main points of the bill would have increased the amount of wages taxed for compensation purposes from $3,000 annually to $3,600; maintained the present maximum tax rate of 4 per cent but decreased the minimum from 2 to 1 per cent, and eliminated some labor benefits and changed the 30-week period for which benefits are paid.

The governor said he did not believe the delay in action will jeopardize a move in the U. S. Congress to ease the present requirements for repayment of $192 million the Pennsylvania Unemployment Compensation Funds owes the federal government.

Signing Set On Test Ban In Moscow

West, Russians Air Final Revisions At Conference Today

MOSCOW (AP) — British and American experts were called to the Soviet Foreign Office again today to make last-minute revisions in the draft of a nuclear test ban treaty.

There continued to be solid optimism, however, that the treaty banning testing in the air, in outer space and under water would be initiated this afternoon by representatives of the United States, Britain and the Soviet Union.

The meeting at the Foreign Office this morning came as a surprise since the draft was reported to be final Wednesday.

There were strong reports that Premier Khrushchev wanted the treaty to be initiated in the Kremlin in his presence. This would give him an opportunity once again to stress how important he feels it is to get a supplemental agreement quickly on an East-West nonaggression pact.

Cautious Western negotiators could not rule out the possibility of more Soviet requests for revisions and appendages.

The greatest appendage proposed by the Soviet Union was for a nonaggression pact between the North Atlantic Alliance and the Communist states of the Warsaw Pact.

The chief Western negotiators, U.S. Undersecretary of State Averell Harriman and British Science Minister Lord Hailsham, talked in great detail Wednesday with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko about the non-aggression pact. They sought to prevent this issue from delaying the initialing of the test ban agreement.

Both Harriman and Lord Hailsham came to Moscow with authority to negotiate only the test ban and not to go further than a general discussion of a non-aggression pact, which would vitally concern the other 13 NATO Allies.

Soviet Premier Khrushchev, in a letter to heads of African nations released Wednesday, said the partial test ban could result in a "radical turn toward a better international climate."

He added that a nonaggression pact between the Western and

Intruder Hits East End Bar

Enters Via Window From Atop Ladder

A burglar forced entry to the Valley Bar, 507 Mulberry St., sometime early today and stole a money bag containing the tavern receipts from a hiding place, police reported.

Using a ladder "borrowed" from the adjoining property of James Shields, the intruder climbed to a rear window of the men's restroom and knocked the glass from the frame to gain entry, police said.

Officers are awaiting a report from the management to determine the loss, which was believed to be approximately $45.

Mrs. Virginia Obenour, a waitress, discovered the burglary when she opened the tavern for business this morning. She notified police at 8.33. Mrs. Obenour said Robert Sentz was the bartender on duty last night and he concealed the receipts in a mon-

Salinger Has A Trying Day

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pierre Salinger, White House press secretary, has a job with a built-in conflict of interests.

Salinger must attempt to serve two masters: President Kennedy and the newsmen who write about the chief executive.

As a result, there are days when Salinger can't win. Wednesday was one of them.

Salinger, always the loyal New Frontiersman, and the White House press corps had two of their liveliest debates over a couple of questions of something less than transcendent national importance:

1. Reports that a hospital suite at Otis Air Force Base, Mass., had been spruced up on the off-chance that Mrs. John F. Kennedy might have her third child there next month.

2. A remark by President Kennedy that seemed to cast aspersions on the work of the Governors Conference in Miami.

Discussing the situation at Otis, Salinger said "there has been no special preparation made for Mrs. Kennedy. Maybe they washed down the walls or something. There has been no furniture bought or anything."

Later, an Air Force spokesman at the Pentagon acknowledged that, within the past month,

"something less than $5,000" was spent to equip the suite with wall-to-wall carpeting, air conditioning and other odds and ends.

However, the Air Force man suggested this had nothing to do with Mrs. Kennedy: "We spruced up the place because we thought it needed sprucing up."

Kennedy prompted the Salinger-press corps debate about the Governors Conference by telling visiting delegates from the American Legion "boys Nation," a make-believe federal government: "It seemed to me that you showed more initiative in some ways than the Governors Conference down in Miami and we are impressed by it."

Salinger replied, off the record. Asked how Kennedy felt "about the action or lack of action by the Governors Conference on civil rights," Salinger gave another off-the-record reply.

Asked what Kennedy had in mind when he mentioned the governors, Salinger again went off the record.

At the end of the day, the bloody - but - unbowed Salinger strode into the White House press room and tacked to the bulletin board a headline clipped from a newspaper feature story.

It read: "The oldtime press agent was a jolly chap."

Nixon Views East Berlin In Surprise Return Visit

BERLIN (AP) — Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon made an unheralded return visit to East Berlin Wednesday night and found that "communism is a complete failure in East Berlin."

He said he found the East Berliners even more anti-communist than the Poles and the Hungarians.

Heckled by Communists and trailed by a horde of security agents on his scheduled visit earlier in the day, Nixon decided to see "what life is really like in East Berlin."

Walking dimly lit streets, Nixon encountered East Berliners who whispered "I'm no Communist, Mr. Nixon" and "our only hope lies in our Americans," then disappeared in shadows.

Youths in a night club cheered when Nixon told them, "I've been in Budapest and I only hope you people can some day get at least the small amount of freedom that the Hungarians have."

Nixon, visibly moved by the East Berliners' reaction, told The Associated Press in an exclusive account of his impressions:

"It was an unforgettable experience because after my first visit I wondered if the East German people might lack the will to resist that the Polish people and the Hungarian people have demonstrated on my visits to Warsaw and Budapest."

"But I found first-hand that the German people are, if anything, even more outspoken in their allegiance to the West and in their complete contempt for and opposition to the Communist regime than the Poles and Hungarians."

Nixon spent two hours on his second trip behind the Red wall, accompanied by his wife, Pat, an official from the U.S. diplomatic mission in West Berlin; Jack Brown, a traveling companion of the Nixons from California, and an AP correspondent.

On a street corner a woman in her 70s kissed Nixon's hand, said "pray for us" and vanished into the night.

Just then a green car screeched to a stop nearby. In it were two East German security agents.

"They've finally gotten the word we've hit town," Nixon said, staring toward the car. "I think the least we can do is tell them good night."

An American escort advised against it, and the Nixon party returned to West Berlin by taxi.

In the night club, Nixon played the Missouri Waltz on the piano and told the customers, "This is to a former political opponent." The crowd laughed, apparently understanding the reference to former President Harry S. Truman.

One after another, the patrons went to Nixon's table to shake his hand and ask for his autograph. "Don't you ever forget that we're not all Red here," said one. "We worry at times that we've been forgotten," said another. "Don't worry, we'll never forget you," Nixon told him.

12 Pay Income Taxes

To Avoid Prosecution
A threat of prosecution for non-compliance with the city income tax ordinance brought payments quickly from 12 persons Wednesday afternoon, D. G. Wilkinson, tax commissioner, said today.

Wilkinson said yesterday he planned to file the first in a series of criminal charges against persons who had failed to make final returns on their 1962 income or estimates on the 1963 earnings.

"Shortly after The Review hit the streets yesterday, 12 persons hurried in to pay," the tax commissioner said. Wilkinson said he will continue to file charges at the rate of 10 a week until the backlog of delinquencies is cleared up.

Step Averts Strike Due On Tuesday

Carriers Consent To Legislators' Bid For Postponement

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's railroads agreed today to put off for 30 days the posting of new manpower-trimming work rules. This averts a threatened nationwide strike next Tuesday.

Daniel P. Loomis, president of the Association of American Railroads, announced the decision at a House Commerce Committee meeting.

Loomis said the 195 carriers involved in the explosive work rules dispute would not impose the changes until 12:01 a.m. Aug. 29.

Loomis said the railroads were taking this step in order to cooperate with Congress which is considering President Kennedy's plan to turn the 4-year-old work rules controversy over to the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The chairman of the House and Senate Commerce committees had requested the delay Wednesday, saying Congress didn't have time to act by Monday evening.

When the request was made, Loomis' immediate response was to say the railroads would be forced to continue "unnecessary payments for work not needed or not performed."

Loomis said such expenditures by the railroad industry are "intolerable under present conditions."

Its chairman, Rep. Oren Harris, D-Ark., and Sen. John O. Pastore, D-R.I., acting chairman of the Senate Commerce Committee, said Congress does not have time to act on the Kennedy plan before the work rules-strike deadline.

Pastore warned that several

Crash Kills 3 On Jefferson County Road

STEBENVILLE, Ohio (AP) — A head-on collision on Ohio 43 a mile south of Amsterdam Wednesday afternoon killed three persons — a young couple and a 27-year-old woman — and injured five children in the two automobiles involved.

The Highway Patrol listed the dead from the crash in Jefferson County near the Carroll County line as:

Rhodes Wins Drive Cleveland To Be '64 Site For Governors Meeting

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Gov. James A. Rhodes of Ohio has convinced the nation's governors to hold the 1964 National Governors' Conference in Cleveland, the Buckeye State's largest city.

The award of the conference to Cleveland for next year came in a unanimous vote of the governors' executive committee late Wednesday.

The governors of the fifty states and four territories agreed to meet at the Hotel Sheraton-Cleveland the week starting June 7.

Rhodes, a Republican, said he would invite President Kennedy to speak at the governor's state dinner. "I think that the President of the United States should be there and talk to the governors," Rhodes said.

Ohio has not had the governor's conference since early in the 1940s when it was held in Columbus.

The selection of Cleveland for the next conference was a big victory for Rhodes, the Cleveland Chamber of Commerce and the Cleveland Convention and Visitors Bureau.

Rhodes was elated at his success. He expressed thanks and appreciation to all those who had assisted in getting the conference to Cleveland.

The governors' conference always is charged with political maneuvers, but it will be even more so next year because of the 1964 presidential election. The conference will be held just about a month before the national nominating conventions.

Rhodes said he told the executive committee that Cleveland was "the best location in the nation for the conference," and that it has "everything necessary for a superior one."

He cited the city's hotels, ballrooms, restaurants, urban renewal program, new underground exhibition hall, Lake Erie, industry, climate and cultural and educational attractions.

Rhodes also said Ohio had made the most concerted drive of any state to get the 1964 conference.

The conference named Rhodes and three other Republicans plus five Democrats to a new executive committee to replace the current one. It was instructed to cooperate with President Kennedy in a study of civil rights.

Dancer Returns As Witness For Ratterman Trial

COVINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Juanita Hodges returns to the witness stand in U. S. District Court today for more cross-examination as to why she was "afraid to tell the truth" in a Newport Police Court trial on charges stemming from her arrest in a hotel room with Campbell County Sheriff George Ratterman more than two years ago.

Miss Hodges is a key witness in the trial of six men — including three Newport policemen — on charges of having violated Ratterman's civil rights. At the time of Miss Hodges' arrest, May 9, 1961, Ratterman was a reform ticket candidate for sheriff and was pledged to rid Campbell County of gambling and vice.

Miss Hodges is a strip-tease dancer under the stage name April Flowers.

Ratterman has contended he was drugged and framed on the night of the arrest as part of a campaign to discredit his candidacy.

Defendants in the trial are Newport Police Chief Upshere White, police detectives Pat Ciardini and Joseph Quinter; Tito Carinci, Edward Buccieri and Charles E. Lester.

Several program recommendations were presented at a meeting of the councils of the Clarkson and New Waterford United Presbyterian Churches Wednesday night at the New Waterford church.

The suggestions will be presented to the Sessions of both churches for final action.

The Rev. Robert Moore is pastor of both.

Next meeting is Oct. 30 at the Clarkson church.

Lisbon Youth Injured In Bicycle-Car Crash

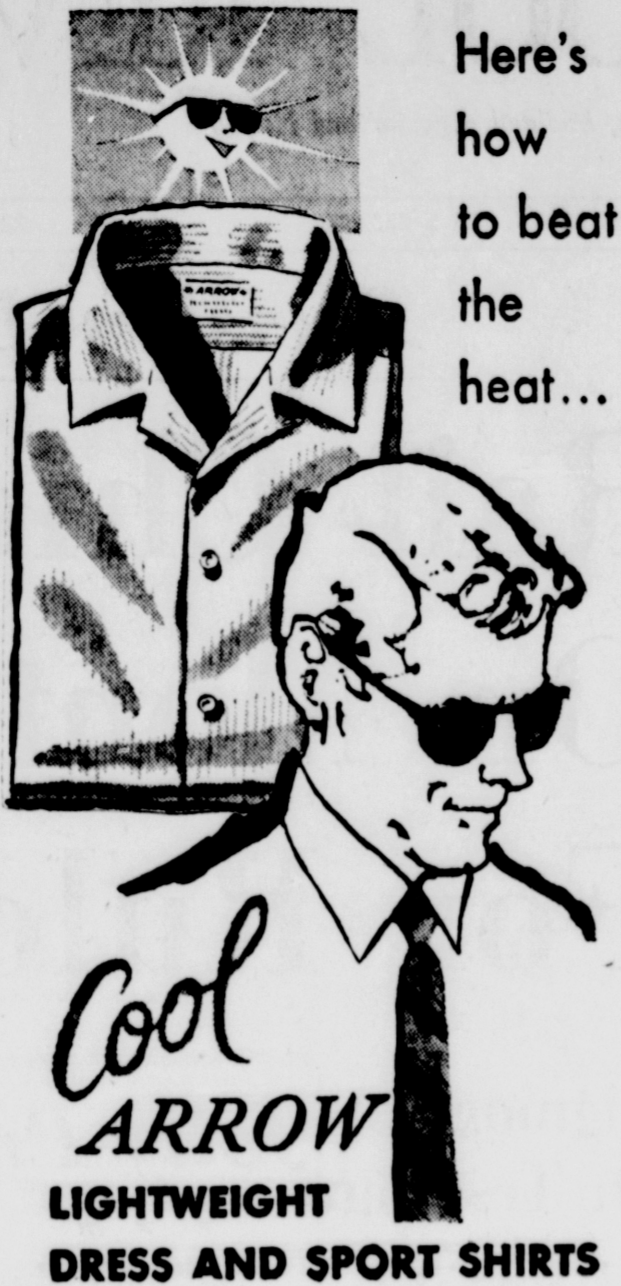

LISBON — Donald Boso, 15, of R. D. 5, was in "fair" condition today at Salem City Hospital with injuries suffered Wednesday at 11 a. m. when his bicycle struck a halted auto on the Pleasant Heights Hill Rd.

Chief Leon Zahndt said the youth's bicycle, moving down-grade, hit a car driven by Gerald Warren John, 16, of Hanoverton. R. D. John told the chief he saw the bicycle approaching in a weaving path, so he halted the car. He said the bicycle then hit the auto. He was driving a car owned by Adam Rudibaugh.

Boso was taken to a physician's office in the firemen's ambulance, then removed to the hospital at Salem. He suffered multiple contusions, abrasions and lacerations.

Quackery Will Not Cure U.S.

America's No. 1 economic problem, it must be conceded, is the continuing drain on its gold reserves.

In 12 of the last 13 years, we have been able to balance our international income and outgo only by dipping into the gold that backs up our dollar.

And what has this done to the dollar? Nothing that inspires any exuberant confidence in it.

And what has the President of the United States done to reverse the trend and shore up the drain on our dwindling reserves?

He has prescribed a series of treatments that fails fully to take into account the diagnosis, with which he is quite familiar.

The latest prescription is his proposal to place a 15 per cent tax on investments in foreign securities.

THIS NOT ONLY has had the effect of dramatizing the depth of the dollar's distress but it contradicts President Kennedy's own statement of a week earlier, when he said "... this nation will continue to adhere to its historic advocacy of freer trade and capital movements."

This sort of maneuver will not fool foreigners, who recognize flags of distress when they see them. When a bank is in trouble and limits withdrawals, what happens to the confidence of the depositor? Similarly, what will happen to the confidence of a German or an Englishman who has made investments in the U.S.?

The imbalance of our international economic posture goes much deeper than the methods prescribed for its cure.

A major factor in the chronic payments deficit is the government's own huge spending abroad. Much of this goes for foreign aid, which has been under almost constant criticism and, at best, has been of doubtful value in relation to the billions invested.

Yet, the President suggests no important cutbacks in these outlays.

MOST OF THE rest of America's vast expenditures abroad are earmarked to maintain our far-flung military establishment, and the President has promised that this will be trimmed to some slight degree over the next few years.

But it is quite obvious that this outlay could be reduced much faster and deeper if our allies, who with our help have been placed in a position to do so, would assume their fair share of the burden of the Free World's defenses. And if they are as interested in their independence as we are led to believe, we are confident they would pick up their share of the tab if we would quit grabbing for it ourselves.

Still another reason for the payments deficit has been the persistent policy of keeping money plentiful and cheap, both in good and bad times. This has encouraged relatively more investments abroad, where higher interest rates are available.

FEDERAL RESERVE did raise the discount rate last week, which may mean that short-term interest rates may move slightly higher.

The proposed investment tax also would force foreigners to offer higher long-term rates if they want to borrow in the American market. But the President has emphasized that there's to be no such interest rate rise for domestic borrowers.

In other words, we are going to tighten money for foreigners while pursuing the easy money policy at home.

Even with all their transparent weaknesses, the government's moves might conceivably accomplish something if we adopted a more responsible fiscal and monetary policy at home.

Quackery will not solve our money illness. It will take some basic medicine.

They Know The Gun's Loaded

There's an especially interesting thing about the way political candidates are made in a country that puts a high value on popular opinion. There is as much effort put into keeping candidates from being made as in making them.

Even more interesting than that is one of the ways this is done. For want of a better name it could be called the loaded twister.

It is what happens when political critics who wouldn't give a potential candidate the time of day go through the motions of being objective about his qualifications.

This process is similar to skimming a man alive with a local anesthetic. When it has run its course, there isn't enough left of the patient to be worth considering — just a few ugly shreds and remnants of what once was a man.

IF THIS IS done obviously, what damage can there be in it? There are no laws against unbridled, ham-fisted criticism of political figures in the United States.

Why Not Nail It Down?

In five more years, a century will have passed since the 14th Amendment to the Constitution was declared ratified by Secretary of State William H. Seward — on July 28, 1868.

Between now and the centennial year, every effort should be made to nail down the 14th Amendment's validity as a key provision in the U.S. Constitution. On one sentence in its first section depends the long-frustrated hope of lifting the lash of vengeance from the backs of the race whose ancestors were held in slavery. On the same sentence is hinged the freedom of every American.

"No state shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any state deprive any person of life, liberty, or property without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws."

American Way

Nobody swallows a bigger lump in the throat than I swallow over the American way of life.

I've known it at its best and loved and cherished everything wonderful about it.

Because of this, I get my fur up higher than ordinary. I guess, when people try to louse up my version of the most wonderful country on earth.

Granted, that my version is more romanticized than can be justified by reality. I want it to be granted also that the people who try to louse it up are as far off the beam in the opposite direction.

I AM FED to the teeth with people who talk and act as if the only purpose of the American way of life was to give them a license to hate.

I get red-necked about people who think the American way is a mandate to arrogate to themselves rights and privileges they deny to others.

I have no patience with patriots so busy ferreting out roaches and termites they never look at the horizon and don't know when the sun is shining.

Nothing leaves me colder than clock-stoppers who talk as if things were better in the time of Grover Cleveland than they are now, because they know nothing about it.

Something inside me goes ploom-ploom when over-the-hill oldsters sneer about the shortcomings of the younger generation, trying to conceal their own shortcomings by bad-mouthing the rising generation.

I have no time for knuckledrums who have the attitude of look at me and how wonderful I am, so why shouldn't everybody want to be just like me?

Put all these people together and shake them up with the ones who want a rematch on the Civil War and a Constitution that Thomas Jefferson wouldn't touch with a 10-foot pole, then dump the mess into the Grand Canyon and bulldoze 20 feet of rock on top of it and the American way of life would be substantially improved.

Not that it needs any improvement otherwise if you ever had the hang of it in the first place, but only that no one can disregard flies at a picnic of people who are a blight on a way of life that the rest of us would prefer to enjoy without distractions.

Me, I like the American way of life because it's founded on a charter for human decency and dignity, so liberal it even makes room for people who would wreck it if they had their way.

I have to give them their right to shoot off their hoo-hoos but I don't have to agree with them. No sir. Never.

Mao Has Eyes On Latin America

By Victor Riesel

PANAMA CITY

There are few here who pay much attention to the Chinese either in the big cities or in the little villages of the rough terrain in the interior stretching 300 miles up to Costa Rica. There are no "Chinatowns." The Chinese, survivors of the coolie labor brought in decades ago to dig the Canal, have dispersed, assimilated and speak Spanish and English but no Cantonese.

There are only eight to ten thousands—yet they are being pressured by the one force, which watches them carefully, into a trans-oceanic conflict which could turn Latin America into a vast Laos or Viet Nam.

This pressure comes from far off Peking, via Macao and Hong Kong. The pressure is still from a distance because there are comparatively few Chinese Communist agents trained for Latin American operations.

Intelligence sources report there are but 370 of these special Chinese mainland Communists in all of Central, South and Caribbean America—outside of Cuba. But thousands more are now being trained in six special colleges in Peking.

THERE IS only a handful in this land of the big Canal. They put the "muscle" directly on the Latin Chinese, while the "heat" comes from the Orient in the form of threats to the families of Chinese back home.

This is the beginning of Peking's drive to develop the Latin Chinese into a continental base for one of the most daring operations since Genghis Khan marched westward.

What the Peking apparatus is doing here, it is duplicating on a larger scale among the million other Chinese, many of them merchants, who live below the United States border.

The immediate Peking objective is to blackmail them into providing funds for the infiltration of Latin America—funds for the creation and expansion of a network which would have several objectives.

The Peking Communists want the good will of the Latin people as the beginning of a trade relationship which would bring in commune-produced slave-labor goods to replace goods from the non-Communist bloc.

AT THE SAME TIME the Peking Communists will be wooing the Latin American Communist parties away from the Soviet bloc. This means shifting them from Khrushchevism to Maoism. In turn, this would mean the flaring of Communist revolutionary jungle tactics such as those we are combating in the Orient on the Vietnamese and Laotian fronts.

In most of Latin America this would not be difficult if Maoism won in its competition with the Russians. It's not generally realized back home, but only a few hours' drive even from such big cities as this one, or just a few minutes away right in the Canal Zone area itself, are dense jungles with slithering poisonous snakes, boa constrictors, jaguars, black panthers and other man-eating "cats."

For experienced jungle fighters the lush jungle would make hide-outs equaling those in Viet Nam. Even in the Republic of Panama there are areas where no roads ever have been cut and Indians live as their ancestors did in the low-lying primitiveness of a thousand years ago.

THE PEKING Communists have made real progress in this many-fronted campaign. The Maoists have won many friends among the Latin Communists.

During the 1960 Moscow conference of 81 Communist parties from across the world the delegations from the Colombian, Chilean, Argentinian, Uruguayan and Venezuelan parties voted with the Chinese against the Russians on many policy issues. Since then the Maoists have gained many friends inside the Mexican Communist party.

Paralleling these moves is the wooing of the non-Communist Latin world. This is being pitched at the Americas through the China-Latin American Friendship Association.

This is run in Peking by one of Mao's closest lieutenants, Ch'u Tu-nan. It has 22 subsidiaries operating from the Rio Grande to the lower Argentine.

It has sent acrobats and artists, youth and women's groups, unionists and bankers from Red China to Latin America. In turn, it has invited exchange cultural delegations, trade groups, government officials, etc., from Latin America.

SO SUCCESSFUL is this Operation Exchange that only El Salvador, Nicaragua and the Dominican Republic have not been officially and unofficially represented in Peking.

Peking's prestige in Communist and non-Communist circles is growing south of the border. Young Latin Communists, now being trained in Cuba for violence, sabotage, use of explosives, raids on banks and other Stalin-era revolutionary tactics, have been especially attracted to the Peking Communist party.

These youths want action for action's sake. The Chinese Communists are willing to supply the logistics and, from the revolutionary point of view, the logic too. And it's all aimed at the United States. Peking is closer than you think.

Down Through The Years

From The Review Files

THIRTY YEARS AGO — B.W. Nunsicker of East Liverpool registered the first hole in one of the season at the Ashtabula Country Club golf course.

Virginia Hardman, Hazel Bell, Sarah Matthews and Bonnie Meets of Wellsville enrolled at the Young People's Conference at Wooster under auspices of the Presbyterian Church.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — The charter was presented to a Boy Scout troop of the Anderson Methodist Church.

Mrs. Charles F. Goodwin of Thompson Ave. concluded a visit with her sons, Lt. Comdr. Robert H. Goodwin and Lt. John Goodwin, both of Washington.

TEN YEARS AGO — ROTC Cadet Richard Tecca, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Tecca of W. 8th St., was appointed cadet colonel at the Donaldson Air Base, Greenville, S.C.

A plaque citing the Chester Lions Club as "the fastest-growing club in West Virginia" was received from the Lions International.

Just Clumsy

The peacock is not really as proud as he seems. The magnificent bird is — sad to say — clumsy. What appears to be strutting actually is an effort to keep from tripping over his big feet.

The peacock's stiff-legged swagger also results from its having to balance a small body and a large train, the National Geographic Society says. The brilliant train may stretch six feet.

The blue and green iridescent plumes are not tail feathers but coverts. The actual tail feathers are plain, short and stiff enough to support the plumage.

The peacock unfurls his spectacular fan to impress the rather drab peahen in the mating season. The bird drops his wings, elevates his train, dances forward and backward, and vibrates the feathers. The quivering plumes rustle, and their metallic colors shimmer.

As often as not, the peahen stolidly ignores this splendid performance and continues to peck away at insects. Undaunted, the peacock continues to spread his fan and rustle.

Coerced Bargaining

By David Lawrence

Government Action Is Taking Over

President Kennedy's message to Congress on the labor dispute which has threatened a nationwide railroad strike is essentially fair in every respect. It affords little comfort, however, to either the unions or the railroads because it merely postpones until a later day the final solution of the problems involved. Will both sides come to realize — as well as many unions and employers in other industries — that national union power could be approaching the end of its rope?

The huge cost and widespread injury that could result from a railroad strike are well understood throughout the country and the American people are in the mood to go along with any solution that will spare them such a hardship but the fact remains that nationally organized labor unions now wield such economic power that, to avert tragic strikes, the government has to step in and do more than merely mediate a dispute.

In this instance, Congress is asked to give the Interstate Commerce Commission full authority to prescribe a settlement. It isn't called "compulsory arbitration." Yet it means an order to both sides to take certain steps outlined by a government agency.

America's economic mechanism has grown so complex that, under the commerce clause of the Constitution, the federal government has been assuming that it has the legal right to regulate not only the transportation industry, but also the wage conditions and working arrangements in virtually all industries, whether or not they are public utilities.

FROM A LEGAL and constitutional viewpoint, there is no doubt that Congress possesses the power to write laws to control the national economy by stipulating the wages and hours and working conditions that shall prevail in most industries.

It had been hoped that, under a free-enterprise system, collective bargaining — namely, voluntary agreement — would be the method used to set wages. Despite all the disclaimers that collective bargaining is still to be maintained, the fact remains that, in this instance at least, collective bargaining now has been brushed aside and government action through special laws has become necessary.

Labor union leaders never dreamed that any such situation would come to pass. They always assumed that, by strikes in local areas and collective bargaining, they could achieve their ends without such intervention of government. Now the picture has changed because, as the President outlined his message, the damage of a railroad strike would be irreparable.

The Interstate Commerce Commission heretofore has exercised its powers in the rail industry primarily in regulating rates for freight and passengers, but in recent years has also been authorized to protect the job security of employees when there are mergers.

FROM THIS, it now is being inferred by President Kennedy that the commission has authority to deal with the impact of the new work rules which the railroads wish to apply because of automation and other developments which have cut down the need for as many employees as before. The President says in his message to Congress:

"There is no reason why these principles and procedures, if they are applicable to the employment security problems raised by railroad mergers and mass transit modernization, are not equally applicable to the employment security problems raised by railroad modernization and mechanization."

"An expert body should pass on these proposed rule changes in the light of public service and safety; and it also should make provision to prevent the employees from bearing the full cost of technical or economic progress, so long as priority is given to agreements privately reached by the parties themselves."

The Interstate Commerce Commission is to be given two years in which to work out an agreement. It will listen to the proposals of both sides in the dispute and take into account any agreements they might reach in the interim. To this extent, collective bargaining, theoretically at least, is being maintained.

As far as the cost of the transition is concerned, the President says that "the nation as a whole, which shares in the benefits, would also bear part of the burden imposed by advancing railroad technology." The President adds:

"The government has some obligation to assist those adversely affected by governmental decisions which are required in the national interest; and there is little logic in protecting the economy by methods which also lead to increased unemployment and more distressed areas. The unfairness of placing the entire burden of readjustment costs upon either the carriers or the workers is an additional reason why legislation is particularly appropriate in this case."

MR. KENNEDY is convinced that there will be problems of this nature coming up in other industries and that the principle of government intervention and assistance should be recognized as necessary.

So, despite all the talk about compulsory arbitration and other devices that have been used in the past, it is plain that a new factor has entered the scene — namely, governmental intervention and governmental designation of the rules that must be followed in settling labor disputes.

Disappointment will be felt by labor unions generally which had believed that they could exercise national power on a private basis without being subjected to governmental discipline.

The enormity of the problem of the labor unions themselves in dealing with the rise of unemployment due to automation have brought a change that nobody really wants but that has become inevitable.

Letter To The Editor

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

Recently our Supreme Court handed down a decision outlawing religious participation in our schools.

Dr. Jack Munyon of Pittsburgh is sponsoring a crusade to have the decision reversed or have a new amendment passed to Get God back into the schools and acknowledged in public places. He has been meeting with government representatives in Washington and Harrisburg, Pa. They have been given hope that with enough support from the public by letter and a long enough list of names Washington will be convinced God must be acknowledged in our schools.

The people who wanted the Bible and prayer removed have said and done things mocking God, discredited the power of prayer and denied the truth and worth of the scripture. There is much more involved in this issue than many people realize.

Of our nation's many problems, this one is crucial. For within the Bible lies the answers for all the other problems. It is because we keep getting further away from the "Word of God" that our problems are rapidly increasing.

Having the Bible removed from the school is just the first step in the taking away of privileges. If this issue is "left alone to just work itself out," others will soon follow. Already movements are under way to have the phrase "under God" removed from our pledge to the American flag.

The attitude "let the home and the church shoulder the religious responsibility alone" is a tool of the devil and victory for the atheist. For the sake of those children who only through the school will have an opportunity to learn of Christ and be saved for eternity, God must be in our schools. Some have no opportunity for religious experience in their home or from any church.

There are a number of influential people behind the crusade, but the outcome depends on the response and support of the public who contribute letters expressing their views and financial support.

All letters are read and classified according to their content and all will be taken together in a truck driven by Dr. Jack Munyon to Washington when he believes it's God's will to go. Single letters written to Washington seldom receive recognition with so many issues before the people.

Please help by sending a crusade letter to Dr. Jack Munyon, P.O. Box 1, Pittsburgh 30.

The charter was draped for Ivan Harrold of Leetonia R.D. 1, who died Wednesday.

Announcement was that the Columbiana County Grange youth meeting will be held at 8 tonight at Mile Branch Grange. It will consist of a mystery ride and wienie roast. The prince and princess tests for all county grange youths will be given in August.

Women of the Grange reported on the lunch served Wednesday at the Paul Davis sale and a thank-you note was read for a recent wedding gift purchased by the Grange.

Next meeting is Aug. 14 at 8:30 p. m. at the Grange Hall on Route 43, north of Lisbon.

1,500 At Lisbon Parade In Series For Centennial

LISBON — An estimated 1,500 persons Wednesday night watched the first of three parades observing Morgans' centennial.

A historical parade is scheduled tonight at 7, and an old-time parade Saturday at 6, followed by a grand costume ball in the Floral Hall at the fairgrounds at 10.

A kangaroo court set Wednesday was not held.

A youth program was held this afternoon and a kangaroo court will be held at 6, followed by the parade.

Renovations Set At Fairgrounds

LISBON — Fairgrounds renovations and projects were discussed in preparation for the annual County Fair Aug. 22-26 when the Columbiana County Agricultural Society met Wednesday night.

Members spent most of the evening in cleaning up the secretary's office as they plan alterations of the building for more efficient service.

The society agreed to build more bleachers in the coliseum, whitewash several of the buildings and spray the grounds and buildings. A concrete wall at the grandstand, which fell during the winter, will be repaired.

Confirmation was read of the appearance of the VFW drill team of Salem Aug. 25, along with the Quaker City Band. They will perform between the horse show competition.

Ben Weingart of Leetonia R.D. chairman, presided. The board will meet again Wednesday at 8:30 p. m.

Roman Ruins Have Nothing On Road Base

A State Highway Department crew excavating to find the cause of sunken pavement along the East Liverpool-Wellsville super road can testify that the ruins of ancient Pompeii have nothing on the base underlying the four-lane highway, although it dates back only about a dozen years.

A power shovel, attaining a depth of 12 feet, so far has uncovered a complete septic tank and a stone retaining wall, still intact and standing upright far below the surface of the ground.

The septic tank probably served a home that once stood along the former Wellsville Road near Shadyside Ave. and the retaining wall may have been part of the former right-of-way or could have separated private property from the former highway, authorities theorized.

The highway crew began the excavation Tuesday to learn why a long stretch of pavement in the new highway has been undermined. About 150 feet of pavement will be ripped away and replaced temporarily with a black-top surface.

The section is in the west-bound lane of the superroad just beyond Shadyside Ave. Since it lies inside the city limits, municipal officials negotiated with the state to work out an agreement for the investigation and repair.

Council was told last spring the base apparently was missing from underneath the section of pavement. The section apparently was supported by the pressure against either end.

During the excavation, traffic on the super road is cut to two lanes from a point near Division St. to Silvers Switch.

Net income in the 1962 first half was $1,534,954 on sales of $61,773,152.

The board at the Canton Headquarters declared a regular quarterly dividend on the common stock of 15 cents per share payable Aug. 30, 1963, to stockholders of record at the close of business Aug. 15.

Bliss second-quarter sales were $32,929,155 with net income of $908,685, compared to 1962 second-quarter sales of $30,811,722 which produced earnings of $559,843. Net was equal to 33 cents per share in the 1963 second quarter compared to 19 cents for the 1962 period.

Detroit Posts New Record

DETROIT (AP) — U.S. auto makers, who have been setting production and sales records with regularity, reported today their output of 1963 model cars has reached an all-time high.

Vehicle No. 7,130,001 rolled off the assembly line either late Wednesday or on an early shift today, breaking the all-time model high of 7,130,000 set with the 1955 cars.

Observers agreed the industry would turn out an additional 210,000 cars before all assembly line operations are halted by mid-August for the changeover to 1964s. That would set the final 1963 model run at 7,340,000.

It was impossible to tell just which of the auto assembly plants across the country turned out the history-making vehicle.

senators already have prepared resolutions to force a 30-day standstill in the dispute.

"But it would be most unfortunate for Congress to have to take that kind of action," Pastore said.

Harris made his plea for postponement as the House committee opened hearings on the administration plan to have the commerce commission handle work rules issues for the next two years, unless the unions and the railroads negotiate a settlement.

Key issue in the controversy is the makeup of the crews that operate trains. The railroads want to do away with some 60,000 jobs including those of 32,000 firemen and impose a variety of other rule changes.

Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz argued the administration's case before the House committee for six hours Wednesday, while Loomis and Wolfe appeared before the Senate committee's four-hour night hearing.

Communist alliances also would improve the international climate, but he did not say a nonaggression pact was a Soviet condition for agreeing to the test ban.

Khrushchev also offered Africa a guarantee not to use nuclear weapons there if World War III broke out, provided the Western powers would make the same pledge.

The treaty, if it follows a Western draft presented before the 17-nation disarmament committee in Geneva a year ago, bans testing in the air, under water and in outer space by the signatory powers. The signers also are pledged not to aid in spreading nuclear weapons to other countries.

It has a safety valve permitting any nation to withdraw in 60 days notice if it suspects that one of the countries has violated the treaty, or that some other nation has detonated a nuclear device under circumstances impairing the security of any signer.

The treaty does not include underground testing because of the failure of the Western nations and the Soviets to agree on safeguards to detect violations.

Military Gets Limited Data On Test Ban

WASHINGTON (AP) — Members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff appear to have been left in the dark about details of the administration's proposal for a limited ban on nuclear testing until almost the final day of diplomatic discussions in Moscow.

Because of this, up to Tuesday morning, the military chiefs had taken no position on the pact, which is awaiting initialing by the United States, the Soviet Union and Britain. What their view is at the moment is not known.

The majority of the strategy-making group reportedly was opposed to the proposal of a year ago for a so-called comprehensive test ban. That would have covered all forms of testing, including underground blasts.

The position of most of the chiefs then was that a comprehensive ban would have been unenforceable. The proposal at this year's Moscow session was to exclude underground shots, but impose a ban on all tests in the atmosphere, in space or under water.

There were some indications today that for reasons of broad national policies the chiefs might withhold objections to the new plan, even if they lacked complete enthusiasm for it on military grounds.

Sen. Richard Russell, D-Ga., chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, told newsmen Wednesday that Secretary of State Dean Rusk informed his committee that he was not qualified to answer technical questions about the draft of the proposed pact. Therefore, said Russell, it is necessary to have more complete hearings and "we will have the Joint Chiefs of Staff testifying in this committee."

Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., said an escape clause contained in the draft would make the committee cautious. This clause would permit any one of the three nations to renounce the pact if it believed tests conducted by nations outside of the pact endangered its security.

This is a point apparently worrying the military chiefs, too. On the other hand, all or at least a majority of the chiefs may have accepted the idea that the omission of a ban on underground testing makes a limited pact militarily acceptable.

Eggs Tossed At Call Girl In Vice Trial

LONDON (AP) — Spectators threw two eggs at Christine Keeler and booed her angrily today when she left the old Bailey court after giving further testimony in the Stephen Ward vice trial.

One egg hit a news photographer on the head. The second splashed on the sleeve of a policeman.

Miss Keeler hurriedly entered a taxicab and drove away.

A crowd of several hundred milled around outside the court building when Christine—the 21-year-old play-for-pay girl who caused John D. Profumo to resign last month as Britain's minister of war—tripped down the steps at the luncheon adjournment.

Women hissed and there were shouted insults.

The photographer who accidentally became an egghead was Bob Dear of The Associated Press.

Christine had been recalled by defense counsel James Burge for questioning about her use of marijuana, a narcotic smoked in cigarettes. She had touched on that in her first appearance in the witness box Monday.

Today she testified that Ward had introduced her to marijuana in 1961 when she was living at one of his flats.

The defense said one witness for the 50-year-old society osteopath and artist would be Vasco Lazzolo, one of Britain's best known sculptors and painters.

Vickie Barrett, 22, a prostitute, testified Wednesday that a man named Lazzolo was among her clients. She said he paid her 4 pounds ($11.20).

Ward has pleaded innocent to three counts of living off the proceeds of prostitution and two of procuring. Conviction could bring up to 25 years in prison.

Ward's lawyers had private detectives out looking for a dancer-model named Sylvia Parker—also known as Sharon Lee.

The lawyers said she might be abroad, possibly in Rome. London newspapers reported she might be in Las Vegas or New York.

Miss Parker was the girl friend of Tony Meila, a London mobster who was murdered last January.

Soon after the shooting she was found in a Mayfair flat with her wrists and neck slashed, apparently in a suicide attempt.

Subsequently she stayed awhile in an apartment rented by Ward.

2,000 At Opening Events For Fair At Highlandtown

A large crowd, estimated by some at 2,000, attended the opening of the Highlandtown volunteer fire department's annual fair Wednesday night.

Tonight's program will include a shooting exhibition at 7 and a variety show at 8.

Deputy Sheriff James Gause will present the shooting exhibition.

The variety show will be at the Grange Hall. The winner of a "Queen for a Day" contest will be announced.

Candidates are Mrs. June Talbot, Mrs. Janet Taggart, Mrs. Jean Francis, Mrs. Hazel Smith and Mrs. Kay Hays. Persons in the area have been voting for the woman they believe has contributed most to the Highlandtown Women's Corps and the community.

Mrs. Agnes McKenzie and Mrs. Verna Corsello are in charge of the variety show.

The annual parade will be Friday night at 8. The fair ends Saturday night with a tractor pull at 10 a. m., horse pull at 1 p. m. and a dance at 9 p. m.

Glenn Jarvis is chairman and Donald Boyd is parade chairman. A pony pull was held last night.

The prosecution charges Ward used the apartment as a brothel.

Tycoon Buys Into Oil Firm

NEW YORK (AP) — Shipping tycoon Daniel K. Ludwig has purchased 1.34 million shares of Union Oil Co. of California common stock, paying $100,539,000 as a personal investment.

The stock was bought from the Phillips Petroleum Co., said William L. Stewart Jr., chairman of Union Oil.

The transaction was revealed in a routine quarterly earnings statement issued Wednesday by Phillips. Phillips acknowledged the sale, but both Phillips and Union Oil declined to name the purchaser.

Ludwig, 66, reputed to have a personal fortune of about $350 million, owns one of the world's largest tanker fleets and is chief stockholder of American-Hawaiian Steamship Co.

He has offices in Manhattan and lives in Darien, Conn., but was reported to be out of the country and couldn't be reached for comment.

William W. Wagner, president of the steamship company, confirmed Ludwig's purchase of 15 per cent of Union's common stock. He said it was strictly a "personal investment" by Ludwig.

The average cash earnings of factory workers were $4,282 yearly and of farmers $2,136, according to the 1960 census.

$20,000 Assists Greene County's Historical Group

XENIA, Ohio (AP) — Years ago, John Glossinger left Greene County to seek his fortune. Today, he has it—and Greene County is getting part of it.

Glossinger, who celebrates his 95th birthday Saturday with a party in a Dayton hotel, came from New York on his annual summer visit back home. This time, he announced he is giving $20,000 to the County Historical Society.

Dr. W. A. Hammond of Yellow Springs, society president, said the money would go to purchase property which will be used as the site of the proposed museum and cultural center.

Glossinger explained, "I just felt I should do something for Greene County since it's the place of my birth. I want to see my money at work and I especially want to see a county historical museum set up soon."

Glossinger made his career as a supersalesman. He is best remembered for helping establish the "Oh Henry!" candy bar as one of America's big sellers.

It's Dodgers Over Bucs Again, 5-1

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
Barring a complete disintegration of his forces, Bob Kennedy of the incredible Chicago Cubs appeared a certainty today to be voted 1963 National League manager of the year.

on the field. So much so that he's been there all year. In each of the past two years, the Cubs rotated their "head coaches", using at least three per season. Regardless of his title, Kennedy has done a magnificent job. He has had the Cubs, a preseason pick to battle the Mets and Colts for eighth place, in pennant contention virtually from opening day. Wednesday the third-place Cubs defeated Cincinnati 2-1 behind the four-hit pitching of southpaw Dick Ellsworth to advance to within a game of the second place St. Louis Cardinals who were beaten 8-1 by the Milwaukee Braves.

loses in July, posted his fourth victory of the month as the Dodgers increased their first-place lead over the Cards to seven games. The big right-hander allowed five hits, struck out eight and walked one. The Dodgers got a run in the third off loser Earl Francis and broke a 1-1 tie with a four-run rally in the fifth. They scored one run on a bases-loaded walk, two more on a single by Johnny Roseboro and another on a wild pitch. Milwaukee southpaw Denny Lee Master spun a five-hitter against the Cards for his sixth season victory. Dennis Menke and Frank Bolling supported him with home runs.

Lawrenceville Tied For League Lead In S. Side

Lawrenceville defeated Frankfurt 6-5, to send both teams into a two-way tie for the lead in the Junior Division of the South Side Hot Stove League. Vic Reed fashioned a neat three hitter and fanned 17 batters. Not only was he strong on the mound but Reed also walloped a home run to pace his mates. Steve Shroades and Eddie Brewer also chipped in with two hits each for the winners. D. Cox with eight strikeouts was the losing pitcher. Ed Roberts of Schenectady, N. Y., held the high average in one league for 21 years between 1936 and 1961.

ISLIP, N.Y. (AP) — Parnelli Jones, winner of the Indianapolis 500 this year, spun into the guard rail during a midget auto race Thursday night but escaped without injury. The accident occurred on the 29th lap of a U.S. Auto Club 50-lap race.

Berhar Hurls No-Hitter For EL

Pitches National Team To District Finals; Fans 16 Batters

Paul (no hit) Berhar made no bones about it. He went out and pitched a no-hitter Wednesday night, twirling the East Liverpool National League All-Stars into the District 4 finals with a 4-0 victory at Massillon. Young Berhar, who had hurled a perfect game earlier in the season, averted the Massillon hitters as he fanned 16 batters and only walked three. The victory sends East Liverpool against Canton Timken for the District 4 championship Friday at 6 p. m. at the Canton Timken Little League Field located on Route 62 south of Canton. The Timken team defeated the East Liverpool Americans, 3-2, last night at Thompson Park. Not one ball pitched by Berhar was hit past the infield to show how strong his performance was last night. Only one runner reached third base. Berhar had to have some backing from his teammates and received some timely hitting as the Nationals came through with eight hits. Sonny Clark was the big noise at the plate for the locals with three RBIs and two hits. Berhar also collected two hits himself. Dan Myers drove in the other East Liverpool run and Bruce Christian came up with a double for the only extra base hit of the game. The locals crowded all of their scoring into the first two innings

Back To Yorkville Tonight

EL Colt Stars Nipped, 1-0; Play Deciding Tilt Today

It's back to Yorkville tonight for the third and deciding game of the Eastern Sectional Colt League Tournament after the Eastern All-Stars blanked East Liverpool, 1-0, Wednesday at the local Colt Field. The victory by the Eastern Stars evened the best of three series at 1-1. The two teams hook up at Yorkville tonight at 8:30. The East Liverpool squad will leave from Heimie's at 6 p. m. today. The visitors scored the only run of the game in the second inning. Lucas walked, went to second on an infield out and scored when Solovan, Eastern's left fielder, socked a single to centerfield. Len Walker was the losing hurler as each team collected five hits. Fine defensive plays marked the contest as each team played errorless baseball. Joe Massey, East Liverpool's shortstop, made a fine grab of a line drive and Roy Scott turned in an outstanding catch of a fly ball.

THIS YEAR'S two leading cash collectors in the world of golf, Arnold Palmer, (left) with $85,955 winnings and Jack Nicklaus, $75,140 are shown talking over the tools of their trade at the Beverly Country Club near Chicago before the start of the 60th Western Open Golf Tourney which gets underway today. $10,000 Goes To Winner As Western Open Begins

CHICAGO (AP) — The player who can spot his tee shots consistently and putt like a demon should win the $30,000 Western Open. The second oldest golf tournament in the nation opened a 60th chapter today with a field of 135 of the game's best starting the 72-hole medal test. It ends Sunday with the winner pocketing $10,000. The Beverly Country Club course, scene of nine major tournaments in the past, is deceptive with its tight trappings, trees and numerous out-of-bounds. Big hitters like Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus, Masters' and newly crowned PGA champion, may leave their drivers in their bags most of the time. In addition to them, the field includes defending champion Jacky Cupit, National Open titlist Julius Boros, and British Open winner Bob Charles of New Zealand, the southpaw spindler. None of them, however, may step into the winner's circle. The title could go to some lesser light among the 41 of the 50 top money winners entered. Don Fairfield, for instance, conquered the 6,867-yard, par 36-35 71 layout with a course record-matching 65 in Tuesday's Pro-Am affair. Oldest in the field is Chick Evans, 73, who won the Western Open at Beverly in 1910, becoming the only amateur ever to do so. After the first 36 holes, the field will be cut to the low 75 and ties. Another cut will come after 54 holes Saturday to the low 60 and ties. The Western Open is unique in its goal. Proceeds go to furthering the world-famed Evans Scholars Foundation, which provides funds for college educations of deserving caddies. No one has duplicated Ty Cobb's feat of winning a major league batting title nine times in a row.

Gallagher's Nip E. End

Gallagher's edged East End, 3-2, knocking the leaders into second place and allowing New Cumberland to take over the lead in the Chester City Softball League Wednesday. East End has a 13-3 record last night while New Cumberland owns a 12-2 mark. Pugilino was the winning pitcher and allowed five hits. Barton was the loser. Kenny led the winners with two hits while Rogers tripped and McMillan and Harvey doubled for East End.

Amvits Gain 2nd Victory

The Amvits, East Liverpool's entry in the County Softball Tournament at Salem, won their second straight contest with a 10-2 victory over Konchar Construction Wednesday night. Howard Wilson was the winning pitcher while John Eckstein and Peck Glover were the hitting stars with a home run each. Each team collected nine hits. The Amvits make their next tournament appearance Saturday at 6:30 p. m.

Timken Gains 3-2 Edge

EL Americans Eliminated From Tourney By Canton

Hope for an all-East Liverpool District 4 Little League championship playoff faded Wednesday night when the East Liverpool Americans dropped a heart-breaking 3-2 decision to Canton Timken at Thompson Park. Timken scored three runs in the third inning on two walks, an error and two singles. Six blanked the Canton team through the other five frames. Canton's Tom Haas, the winning hurler, kept the seven hits by East Liverpool scattered well all except the fifth inning when the locals came up with their two runs. East Liverpool scored when the Kempie singled and Klembara walloped a home run over the left field fence. The Americans scored another run in that inning but it was called back when an East Liverpool runner was out when he failed to touch first base on what appeared to be a two-base hit. Kempie had two hits for East Liverpool while Montgomery blasted a double. Haas fanned eight East Liverpool batters while Six struck out five and gave up eight hits. Haas also was the hitting star for his team with three singles and two RBIs. Cain, Canton Timken's second baseman, was outstanding in the Kempie singled and Klembara walloped a home run over the left

Ford Cranks Up And Hurls Yankees To 6th Straight

Tribe Goes Scoreless In 2 Loses

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

"The catchers are carrying this ball club," said Yankee catcher Elston Howard.

"We've got the best infield in baseball," said Ralph Houk, Yankee manager.

"New York's got that great over-all power," said Johnny Pesky, Red Sox manager.

"They've come up with a couple of fine young pitchers in Al Downing and Jim Bouton," said Bill Rigney, Los Angeles manager.

So maybe they've all forgotten Whitey Ford? At least no one seems to be talking about him. Ah, well, maybe there's no reason to. He's just won 12 in a row, 16 in all and, as usual, is shouldering the burden of the important pitching chores as the Yankees go bombing along toward another pennant.

The 34-year-old left-hander was no more excited than a businessman is walking to the office Wednesday as he turned in a workman-like 8-4 victory over the Los Angeles Angels, the Yankees' sixth straight. He allowed only six hits and struck out eight before giving way to a pinch hitter after seven innings.

Minnesota's Twins got good pitching performances from Dick Stigman and Jim Kaat in a double blanking of Cleveland, 9-0 and 5-0; Kansas City swept two from Boston, 5-2 and 7-6; Baltimore overcame a four-run deficit and beat Washington 8-5, and Chicago defeated Detroit 3-1.

Ford's victory put him in a tie with the Dodgers' Sandy Koufax and the Giants' Juan Marichal as the majors' top winner of the season. And he extended his own mark as the most consistent winner in the history of the game among pitchers who have won 100 or more. His lifetime mark of 191-74 for a percentage of .721 leads the all-time list. Spud Chandler is next at 109-43, .717.

John Blanchard, a converted catcher pressed into service in the Yankees' injury-riddled outfield, once again provided the big hitting. He drove in four runs on a homer and two singles and scored twice.

Minnesota's Stigman was supported by an 11-hit attack that included two homers by Don Minch and four batters by Rich Rollins and Johnny Goryl in the first game victory.

Jim Hall's ninth-inning homer broke a scoreless duel in the nightcap and Kaat put it out of reach with a three-run blast.

He struck out 11 and allowed only six hits.

Ohio Valley, Colonial Win In Slow Pitch

Ohio Valley scored a 16-11 victory over Wellsville and Colonial Grill won by the forfeit route over Scafile in Wednesday's Slow Pitch League action.

B. Eckstein with four hits, J. Schwartz with three and Fisher's two safeties sparked Ohio Valley. Bowers was the winning pitcher. Bob Kiggins had a perfect four-for-four night while Petros collected three safeties and Platt and Hall had two each for Wellsville.

In games Tuesday, Koerber's captured its sixth win in seven starts to grab the lead in the Slow Pitch League with a 13-4 win over Ohio Valley. Monte Stuffer slammed two home runs and a single while Eckstein and Crawford came up with two hits each for Ohio Valley. Lampman was the winning hurler.

Mary Pack hit three home runs for East End but that wasn't enough as Klondyke came out on top, 18-13. Bob Canton led the winners with three singles. One of Pack's home runs came with the bases loaded.

Two games rained out Monday have been rescheduled for Sunday with Dan-D-Bar meeting Osborn Barbers at 6 and Wellsville and the Bombers playing at 7.

Browns See Fine Tackle Play By Clark

HIRAM, Ohio (AP)—Monte Clark has taken over the right tackle spot on offense for the Cleveland Browns and protected the passer so well that the NFL club may give up on its attempt to lure Mike McCormack out of retirement.

Clark's performance was one of the highlights of Wednesday's workout as the Browns took on their first pass play. Others who did well were quarterback Jim Ninowski, fighting to regain his first-team job, and ends John Brewer and Gary Collins.

Clark, obtained during the off-season from Dallas for veteran guard Jim Ray Smith, had a hard contact workout against defensive end Paul Wiggins.

"Monte gave me a rough time in Dallas last winter, so I knew what to expect," said Wiggins.

Coach Blanton Collier was impressed with Clark's work in protecting the passer and enjoyed the work of Wiggins against him.

Trailing 7-6 going into the sixth inning, Post 374 rallied for five runs to win going away.

Hamilton's perfect four-for-four night paced Post 374 at the plate while Dave Bowersock, Nolan Burns and Dave Myers all came up with two hits each. Randall smacked a home run and single to pace Columbiana.

LSU School Editorial Urges Integrated Foes

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—The Reveille, campus newspaper at Louisiana State University, has editorially called for the LSU football team to play integrated opponents.

The Tigers have not played integrated teams in regular season games in recent years, although the team played against Colorado—which had Negro players—in the 1962 Orange Bowl.

Lou Burnett, editor of the Reveille, wrote Wednesday that "to continue to have a good schedule, bring top name teams here and participate in post-season contests, LSU will have to make up its mind to participate against teams with Negro players."

Ex-OSU Grider Dies

Spahn Faces Burdette For First Time

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Warren Spahn and Lew Burdette, who were roommates when they hurled the Milwaukee Braves to National League pennants in 1957 and 1958, are scheduled for a mound showdown today.

Spahn, at 42 baseball's most successful left-handed pitcher, will be on the mound for the Braves, while the 36-year-old Burdette will be wearing the uniform of the St. Louis Cardinals.

"It will be strange facing Burdette at the plate," Spahn said Wednesday night as the assignments were announced. "In fact, it's strange seeing him in another dugout."

Burdette joined Spahn in the exchange of mock concern over the other's plate power.

Spahn, according to Burdette's findings, "is a better over-all hitter than I am. And he should be, he's been playing 15 years longer than I have." Of his own hitting, Burdette said, "I hit in spots."

But the plate power of the two master hurlers is not all Spahn's 33 career homers are a high for National League pitchers. Burdette owns a piece of a National League record for hitting by pitchers, twice belting two home runs in a game.

As Spahn contemplated the mound duel, he said, "seriously, we'll be trying to outdo each other."

The stage for the face-to-face test was set when the Braves traded Burdette to the Cards June 15 in a bid to add some punch to the batting order.

Giant Owner Balks On Use Of Field As A's Plan Move

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—San Francisco Giants owner Horace Stoneham officially told Mayor George Christopher Wednesday that he will not allow any other major league baseball team to use city-owned Candlestick Park as a home field.

His refusal was obviously directed at Kansas City Athletics owner Charles Finley, who is understood to be interested in moving his team to Oakland, across San Francisco Bay.

Since a planned Oakland Stadium complex will not be ready for at least two seasons, Candlestick is currently the only existing permanent field suitable for major league play.

Christopher said he told Stoneham at a meeting Wednesday that "responsible people in Oakland" had called upon him with the request to use Candlestick.

Meantime in Kansas City, Finley notified the city in a letter he won't negotiate a new lease until September.

Finley told The Associated Press Saturday he was uncertain whether he would seek approval of other American League owners to move the club to Oakland when the season ends. He said Oakland approached him and offered to build a temporary stadium seating 27,500 for use until a larger one is finished.

Madison Square Garden's 30th consecutive college basketball season opens Dec. 6 with Navy playing Manhattan and Tulsa meeting NYU.

'Lively Ones' Hits The Spot

Despite their gnawing suspicion that no one is watching except three hermits in Vermont, the men who run television keep telling themselves that summer-time repeats are a public service.

We, the viewers, get to see all of those wonderful shows we missed during the regular season, they say while counting all the money they're saving for them selves and the sponsors. Last summer, however, one sponsor had the courage and acumen to spring with a new series. It was called "The Lively Ones" and ran in place of "Hazel" for eight summer weeks.

IF ANY VIEWERS stormed NBC complaining because they couldn't see more reruns of "Hazel," there seems to be no record of it. In fact, "The Lively Ones" was so avidly welcomed by parched summer viewers that the sponsor (Ford Motor Co.) ordered eight more of the pop jazz series for this summer, beginning tonight (9:30, Channel 3).

Some viewers who tuned in a year ago and saw Dave Brubeck and his group riding a magic carpet over the Hollywood Freeway to the rather wild beat of "Blue Rondo a la Turk" may have thought "Lively Ones" was a little far out. None denied it was different.

What makes "Lively Ones" different is producer-director Barry Shear, an intense young showman who hasn't let 18 years of commercial TV work kill his desire to be original.

FOR FIVE of those years, Shear had a comrade-in-arms in the late Ernie Kovacs. He produced and directed Ernie's daytime shows in 1956, several "specials" and finally those strictly Kovacsian half-hours on ABC just before Ernie was killed in the auto accident.

Shear already has taped the eight "Lively Ones" to be seen this summer. Not only did he not borrow ideas from last summer's shows, but he hasn't used a single repeat guest star. The only thing the same is Vic Damone, the host of these musical melanges.

In a segment of one upcoming show, Shear breaks all of the so-called rules by showing us no one on the TV screen. For several minutes we hear only a tiny player piano tapping out George Gershwin's "Rhapsody in Blue."

"I WAS at a friend's house one day," explains Shear, "and noticed this old piano roll. It turned out to be one that Gershwin had made himself.

"So I thought what a great idea it would be to have a camera pan up a street on New York's East Side, then up a fire escape and into the window of this flat. There, in the room, is this piano playing Gershwin's "Rhapsody" just as he played it. And that's it. Who needs anything else?"

As conceived by Shear, the Gershwin segment has just the right feeling. It's a gimmick, but not for the sake of being a gimmick. In the hands of a less imaginative and courageous producer, the Gershwin piano roll might have been ruined with an off screen narrator waxing nostalgic about how Gershwin sat in that East Side flat composing his masterpiece.

THE AUG. 8 "Lively Ones" has three of the country's top trumpet men — Roy Eldridge, Bobby Bryant and Charlie Shavers — dressed as gladiators and riding in chariots around Hollywood Park racetrack.

"They are blowing their horns in a race to see which is best," explains Shear, tongue tucked securely in cheek.

Stan Getz, in another segment, is seen sitting and playing on a willow tree limb over the Potomac.

No matter what your name is, or how big you may be in the world of music, Shear refuses to give any guest the big introduction. You must be satisfied with your name in the credit crawl at the end of the show.

SHEAR IS NOT anti-talent, but he refuses to clutter the pace of his shows with those inane introductions ("Here's a gal who needs no introduction").

"Lively Ones" may not be the greatest musical series to hit TV, but in a summer like this one, it certainly has no competition.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Creativeness Should Be Encouraged

The little child under five or six often creates without being encouraged to do so. Even if one attempted to keep him from creating, he would go on creating. But we can discourage a child's lessening his creating or we can encourage and stimulate it. The child seems to begin creating as soon as he begins to walk.

Dr. Garry Meyers

gins imagining and exercising his curiosity.

At two, three or four, he may put a block on top and between two other blocks a bit apart and say "bridge."

He may look at spots on the wall and see creatures there. He may hand you a toy cup and ask you to have tea with him. Or he may have only a bit of paper, even nothing at all, for his tea party with you.

HE MAY TALK to you about things not present and have all sorts of fun with an imaginary person or animal. He may push a plain block on the floor and call it a choo-choo, or push a few in a row and consider them a train.

Even a child as old as 7 or 8 may push toy trains or tractors over the floor pretending they are real ones. He may use a spool, clothespin or stick for any creature he wishes to have. He may spin all sorts of yarns out of his head, especially if he has often been read to.

How wonderful when we enjoy these creations of his! Then he will create still more.

But suppose we made fun of him or rebuked him or ignored his creating as silly? See what harm we might do then.

Suppose your child 3, 6 or older often pretended he was another person or some animal and wanted ed you to treat him so. Suppose he then, or years later, played at pretending with dolls or other playthings or with other children. What a dramatist he then would be.

THE SAD FACT is that, after he has been in school a few years, he may choose to create in such ways less and less.

Compare the originality of a youngster's yarns or pretending at 3, 4, or 6 with a story he may write in school at 10 or 12. Or contrast his own spontaneous dramatization before going to school with his participation in a school play at 9 or 11.

As soon as the child can scribble with pencil or crayon he begins to draw pictures. How fine when he keeps on drawing for fun and painting and cutting out things or creating from paper or molding objects, however crude, from dough or clay.

Learning to use simple tools, he may go on creating from paper, cardboard, wood and other materials. While he needs tools and materials for such, he needs still more the appreciation of older persons who like what he creates.

When he's at school how fine it is if his teacher appreciates what he creates in words or things.

VERY EARLY THE tot explores things with his hands, asks many questions about things, how they are made, how they work and all sorts of matters he has wondered about. Answer him kindly, so he feels more curiosity, which is often the source of creativeness.

His very explorations and questions reveal creation from his head. They are not different from what most call thinking.

My bulletins, "Beginnings of Imagination" and "Stimulating Your Child's Imagination," may be secured by sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Freezing Sweet Corn Explained For Housewives

Suggestions for local housewives to follow in freezing sweet corn have been listed by Mary Joan Howes, home demonstration agent for Hancock County.

She advises using young, tender ears in the milk stage. The ears are to be cleaned of husks and silk and trimmed of bad spots. "If you plan to freeze corn on the cob, blanch in boiling water from five to 10 minutes, depending on the sizes of ears," Miss Howes says.

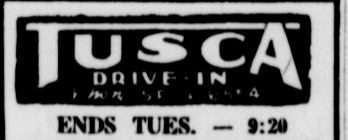

"If you plan to freeze whole kernel corn, you may either blanch the corn after it has been cut from the cob or blanch it on the cob and then cut off the kernels. The latter method is preferred and the cobs are blanched four to five minutes. Corn cut off the cobs is blanched three to five minutes.

"Cool the corn cobs or whole kernel corn promptly in cold water, drain and package for a better and not too starchy product," Miss Howes says.

She adds that an average American will eat about 23½ pounds of sweet corn a year, including eight pounds of fresh corn, 12½ pounds of canned corn and three pounds of frozen corn.

Auto Abandoned Here Traced To Pittsburgh

After a week's effort, East Liverpool police succeeded Wednesday in tracing the ownership of a 1960 or 1961 model Dodge Seneca four-door sedan which was found abandoned without license plates about 8 a. m. July 16 on the lower road leading to the municipal swimming pool in Thompson Park.

The ownership was traced to a Pittsburgh man, who said the car was stolen May 30, officers reported. An insurance company representative is due here with proof of ownership to claim the auto.

The lack of license plates complicated the job of tracing ownership. Except for the serial number of the auto, the only other clue was a sticker showing the car was sold by the Foss Motor Co. of Etina.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruise —

DEAR HELOISE: In answer to removing stitch and needle marks from material, here is my method, and I hope it helps.

I worked in an alteration department for some years, and learned to place a few thicknesses of soft material, such as cheese cloth, on the ironing board. Place the material with the marks over this and cover with a few more thicknesses of the soft material.

Then dampen the material with a sponge.

Place a hot iron on top of the material and gently steam. This will usually remove the marks. If not ... I lightly "scratch" the stitch marks with my fingernail. Then steam again between cloths.

Be sure not to get the cloth too damp or there may be water rings. By the way, I remove water rings by lightly scratching them with my fingernail crosswise!

CATHERINE DAUGHERTY.

DEAR FOLKS: Scratching with your fingernail or a very stiff brush does remove some water marks. I tried it. It worked beautifully on my drapes that were water spotted by our garden hose when a window was left opened. I used a very stiff brush for this and brushed both sides of the drapes — up and down and crosswise on the material.

Heloise.

DEAR HELOISE: You know how long it takes to mix up frozen orange juice? I put mine in my blender and add the water, turn it on. It saves me lots of time. The frozen juice is mixed in a jiffy.

PATSY.

DEAR PATSY: Wow! Did you have a bright idea. And the juice tastes completely different. Thanks a million times.

Heloise.

DEAR HELOISE: I am a new bride and my budget doesn't include pots of ivy. My neighbor has a sweet potato plant (at least that is what she tells me it is), and I can see her darned old sweet potato in the bottom of the jar ... but she won't tell me how to grow one.

Can any of your readers tell me how to grow one quickly?

JOSH.

Come on, gals, do any of you know how to grow a sweet potato plant, quickly? I have tried this myself and I've had no luck either.

Anybody who can grow sweet potato plants, please let us know the answer.

Send your letters to Heloise. They do not have to be signed to appear and we will appreciate any information from you who know how to solve this problem and will share with us.

Heloise.

DEAR HELOISE: If your child gets chewing gum in her hair try using the white of an egg to remove it. When you're cooking your eggs for breakfast just pick out a half teaspoon of the white and set it aside. Rub the white of the egg on the child's hair. All the chewing gum will come out and there will be nary - a - trace of chewing gum.

Because they are usually rushing to school or out to play, I don't have time to wash the hair. I have learned to take a damp wash cloth and buff the hair strand between my fingers, then use a hair brush. It looks ever so nice.

And just tell me, why do little girls and boys go to sleep with chewing gum in their mouths?

W.

DEAR W.: Just hope your child does not get into the mood of playing "barbershop." This happened to our son! What a mess and it took months for his hair to grow out.

Understanding.

DEAR HELOISE: I scrub my aluminum pots and pans with paste - type silver polish and instead of using steel wool I use nylon scouring pads. The paste type silver polish is especially good for removing the black rings from aluminum pots and pans.

I also use this on my stainless steel oven and range. I just apply the polish with a damp sponge and wipe dry with a soft clean cloth.

Dairy Firms, Union Confer At Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH — Efforts at breaking a deadlock over contract terms were slated today in talks between the milk drivers union and representatives of 59 dairies in a 10-county area of western Pennsylvania.

Leaders of Local 205, Milk & Ice Cream Salesmen, Drivers and Dairy Plant Employees, and industry executives were to meet this morning at the Penn-Sheraton Hotel.

The parley was arranged by State Conciliator Joseph Bach after separate meetings Wednesday with both sides to study possible areas of agreement.

Bach reserved comment on the results of his meetings with the union and industry leaders.

The union Monday night rejected a 2 1/2-cents an hour offer. Some 1,200 drivers and 1,800 plant workers are in the union.

A union spokesman said no strike deadline has been set, but members have been advised the walkout could be called this week.

Cruisers Hit In 2 Crashes Minutes Apart

Two cruisers — one from the State Highway Patrol and the other from the sheriff's department — were involved in separate accidents in Columbiana County Wednesday night just a few minutes apart.

The first mishap at 7:21 p. m. in Lisbon involved a patrol cruiser driven by Patrolman Phillip E. Wenner, 31, of Leetonia and a 1962 sedan operated by Alma Ready, 62, of Lisbon R. D. 5.

Wenner halted the 1962 cruiser at the intersection of Pritchard Ave. and Lincoln Way and was hit in the rear by the Ready car.

Lisbon police investigated. The woman was cited for failure to stop within the assured clear distance. Minor damage resulted of both vehicles.

Four minutes later, the sheriff's cruiser was damaged extensively in a crash on Route 164 about seven-tenths a mile north of Route 39 at Salineville.

Deputy Sheriff James R. Gause, 29, of Lisbon R. D. 4 was driving the 1963 cruiser which hit a 1955 truck operated by Donald Conrad Kempf, 126 E. Main St., Salineville.

The Lisbon State Highway Patrol investigated. Officers said Gause started to pass the truck.

Kempf then tried to make a left turn.

Kempf was cited for improper registration and for failure to signal a turn.

A 1952 truck driven by Dale D. Mays, 27, of East Liverpool R. D. 1, and a car driven by George E. Alton, 36, of 1183 Lisbon St. were involved in a crash on Route 287 two and seven-tenths a mile south of Route 30 Wednesday afternoon at 3:45.

Both were headed north and Alton started to pass Mays as he began a turn. Alton was cited for failure to signal to pass. Minor damage resulted, the patrol said.

Triple Overtime Pay Urged To Boost Employment Levels

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the news from Washington: TRIPLE TIME: A labor leader has suggested to Congress that to bolster employment, the working of overtime should be discouraged by requiring employers to pay for it at two-and-a-half or triple time. Such premier pay should be required on work in excess of seven hours a day and 35 hours a week, said Joseph A. Beirne, president of the AFL-CIO Communications Workers of America. "Obviously, the present time-and-a-half overtime rate for work in excess of 40 hours in a week is not discouraging overtime in many industries," he told a House Labor subcommittee Wednesday. PIGGY-BACK: The Air Force has disclosed that it has fired a small satellite deep into space from the back of a larger one. The parent satellite was fired into a relatively low polar orbit from Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif., June 27. The second satellite, riding piggy-back with a 50-pound payload, was sent sailing into orbit July 1, triggered by an electronic signal, the Air Force said Wednesday. There was no explanation why the Air Force waited so long before announcing the piggy-back launching. The main objective, a spokesman said, was exploration of the earth's magnetic fields and their relation to energy reaching the earth from the sun.

Motorist, 42, Hurt In Crash

A 42-year-old Wellsville district man was injured late Wednesday afternoon when his halted auto was hit from the rear by a truck at a downtown intersection, police reported. Sherman Rohr Jr. of Wellsville, R. D. 1 suffered neck injuries in the crash at 3:27 at W. 3rd and Jefferson Sts. that involved his 1955 model sedan and a 1960 model truck operated by Richard E. Dinger, 23, of Augusta in Carroll County, officers reported. Rohr was released after treatment at City Hospital. Police said the drivers agreed Rohr was halted for a traffic signal when his auto was hit from the rear by the truck, owned by Leaseway System, Inc., of Alliance. The collision damaged the bumper and a rear panel of the auto but the truck was undamaged, police said. Two autos were damaged in a collision at another downtown intersection Wednesday at 10:32 p. m., police said. The crash at W. 5th and Market Sts., involved a 1963 sedan driven by Charles W. Shriver, 40, of 236½ W. 5th St. and a 1962 sedan driven by Margaret L. Doughty, 29, of 1049 Avondale St., officers said. Both claimed the traffic signal was in their favor, although they were traveling on intersecting courses — Shriver west on 5th St. and the woman north on Market, police said. The collision damaged the left front quarter panel and bumper of the Shriver car and the right front quarter panel and door of the Doughty car.

OXFORD TROOPS: The Pentagon estimates it cost about $4,364,000 to maintain Army troops at the University of Mississippi for the protection of James Meredith, a Negro student. The estimate covers costs from last October, when the first troops were moved into the Oxford, Miss., area, through June 30. Peak strength was 23,000 men. The last of the troops leave today. The Justice Department has estimated its costs for marshals and other personnel at Oxford at $559,000 at the end of June.

Group Sets Plan For Job Equality

CLEVELAND (AP)—All unions that fail or refuse to allow negroes to join or take part in apprenticeship programs will be the targets of the United Freedom Movement, Frank Evans, UFM labor adviser, said Wednesday. Evans, international executive board member here of Allied Industrial Workers of America, said the group will seek to halt federal financial aid on all building and construction projects which discriminate against Negroes. "We also are interested in all plants and industries with government contracts that fail or refuse to give Negroes an equal chance of employment," he said. The UFM also will seek to enjoin the Cleveland Board of Education from accepting apprentices or teaching apprenticeship programs for any union discriminating against Negroes, Evans said.

Escapee Sought In Dayton Area

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Police both here and in Columbus and other Ohio law enforcement officers were conducting an intensive search today for Richard Walter Ermacora, an escapee from the Lebanon Correctional Institute.

Ermacora, 27, a former Columbus city fireman, is believed to be the gunman who terrorized a taxi driver and threatened to shoot a Dayton detective sergeant here Wednesday night.

The man, about to be arrested when the taxi took him to a house, Dayton police had staked out after getting a tip he was in the area, fled after getting the drop on Sgt. J. D. Reay. He forced cabbie Donald P. Reed, 32, to drive him away, then a few blocks away ordered Reed out. The gunman drove on, abandoned the cab near a car dealer's lot and evidently escaped in a stolen auto.

Ermacora escaped from the Lebanon prison in Southwestern Ohio Sunday night.

Fascist Era Ended

'Il Duce' Met Last Stage
Of Career 20 Years Ago

By EUGENE LEVIN

ROME (AP)—"I want to make a mark on history with my will, like a lion with his claws."

The words were Benito Mussolini's. He made his mark. History recalls that he made Italy's trains run on time. History records that he made war a national policy, and history notes that 20 years ago today Benito Mussolini came to the beginning of the end.

That was the day King Victor Emmanuel III put Mussolini under arrest. The shock of Allied landings in Sicily 16 days earlier had been too great for tottering Italy. Its Fascist leadership split. The military stepped in. Field Marshal Pietro Badoglio replaced Mussolini as premier.

German forces freed Mussolini and helped him set up a Fascist republic in northern Italy. The end came on April 28, 1945, when the tommy guns of Italian partisans riddled Mussolini and his mistress, Claretta Petacci.

Fascism's flame still burns in Italy. A million and a half Italians voted the Fascist ticket in national elections last April. Thousands of young Fascists still thrill to a street fight with Communists—as their black shirt fathers did 40 years ago.

But the Fascist vote represented only 5 per cent of the electorate, and there is no apparent heir to Mussolini, creator of fascism whose doctrine inspired Adolf Hitler.

Mussolini came to power in 1922, just before his 40th birthday. Thousands of his followers marched on Rome and forced the king to turn over the government to Mussolini.

Mussolini, once a Socialist himself, said Italy needed a strong and vigorous leader. He took the title Il Duce—the leader.

He replaced Italian parliamentary institutions with what he called a corporate state—an economy of privately owned industry directed by the state through "corporations" of business, labor and government representatives.

In 1936 Mussolini led Italy against Ethiopia. Then came the Jeffrey Taylor, 6, son of Phelmon Taylor, 1422 Commerce St., Wellsville, was treated Wednesday night for burns of the abdomen and right hand suffered when he fell into an open fire.

Others treated included Mark McKee, 7, son of Donald McKee, 1121 Sturgess Ave., Fisher Park, who suffered a puncture wound of the right foot when he stepped on a nail.

Herbert Lockhart Jr., 3, son of Herbert Lockhart of Dakota Ave., cut his head when he fell against a seesaw.

Robert Marcin, 10, son of Robert Marcin, 1121 Esther Rd., Wellsville, suffered a laceration of the scalp when struck with a stone.

Larry Lawson, 14, son of Charles Lawson, 21 Washington St., Newell, cut his right knee when he fell from a bicycle.

David Blazer, 12, son of James Blazer of Lisbon St., was cut on the left cheek when hit with a snorkle mask worn by another person while swimming.

Caroline Michaels, 10, daughter of Mrs. Caroline Michaels of Chester R. D. 1, injured her left arm in a fall down steps.

Mrs. Dorothy Sullivan, 800 Lincoln Ave., cut her left thumb with a butcher knife.

Water Spout Hits
Near Pensacola,
But None Injured

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP)—A cone of water a half-mile high whipped out of the Gulf of Mexico and cut a two-mile path through a lagoon. It ripped up fishing camps, demolished pleasure boats and temporarily stranded at least nine persons. But no injuries were reported.

Fishermen estimated the water spout—which is a tornado over water—was pushed by winds of more than 100 miles an hour when it struck Wednesday.

The main damage was done by one huge water spout, estimated by observers to be a half-mile tall and more than 200 yards at the base. But several other smaller spouts slammed against the beaches near the lagoon, about 10 miles west of Pensacola.

Damage estimates ran from $80,000 to $150,000. At least a dozen boats were destroyed and several fishing shacks were blown in.

Neil House May Get New Owners

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The historic Neil House hotel, where 15 U.S. presidents, from Andrew Jackson to Warren G. Harding, have been overnight guests, may have a change of ownership and extensive remodeling soon.

Ralph Felver, an Akron attorney, said Wednesday he and three other Akron men—developer A. J. Andreoli, builder Thomas Dillon and accountant Daniel Slav—have virtually completed negotiations to purchase the downtown Columbus hotel for $5 million.

Felver said contracts would be signed next week if the transaction doesn't fall through.

Felver also announced that an architectural firm is drafting plans for a $2.5 million modernization effort. Plans include remodeling of dining rooms and reduction of the number of usable guest rooms to 450.

Archbishop B. J. Sheil of the Chicago Roman Catholic Archdiocese acquired title to the building about 14 years ago.

Junior Editors Quiz on WHALES

QUESTION: Why did "Moby Dick" have this special name?

ANSWER: "Moby Dick" was the savage sperm whale featured in Herman Melville's famous book of the same name. Although this particular whale appeared in a book of fiction, much about him was true. Moby Dick was a "rogue" whale—one who would turn on whale hunters when they attacked him and chew their boats to pieces or smash the boat and men with mighty blows of his tail. A number of rogue whales have been recorded. Frequently, seamen recognized them by certain markings, and as they swapped stories they invented names. Dick, Tom and Jack were familiar names and often the seamen added some other name to this. There was a celebrated whale called "Tumor Tom" and another named "New Zealand Jack." In the book, Melville tells how Moby Dick can be recognized by his snow white hump (he was an albino or white whale), by his crooked lower jaw and by the nest of twisted harpoons often attackers had left sticking in his hide. According to the book, Moby Dick had once bitten a leg off fiery Captain Ahab, who then vowed to chase and capture him. In the end, however, Moby Dick sinks both the captain and his ship.

FOR YOU TO DO: Few whalemen were violent and furious like Captain Ahab. Whaling was their business—a very important and exciting one. See if you can find out about whaling and what it meant to America in the old days. Whale oil fetched a high price. But what was it used for? Robert Clayman of Woodbridge, N. J., wins today's grand prize of a 20-volume set of the World Book Encyclopedia for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of The Review and you too may win a set.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: My husband and I have been married for 12 years and we have four nice children. We don't get along any better or any worse than most married people although I've made a real effort to avoid arguments and maintain peaceful atmosphere in our home.

When my husband loses his temper, which is fairly often, he claps on his hat, slams the door behind him and goes off for a drive. He calls this "getting rid of his anger behind the wheel."

I'm on needles and pins until he gets home. It worries me sick. He says it's a lot better than keeping the anger bottled up, and certainly better than socking somebody—meaning me, I suppose.

Will you please say a word in your column about people who do this? My husband reads you faithfully. — CONCERNED CONNIE.

Dear Connie: Hospitals and graveyards are full of people who took their anger out behind the wheel. The real tragedy is that they usually manage to drag innocent people along with them.

Studies made by the National Safety Council prove that hostile, anxiety-ridden, angry drivers are a menace to everyone on the road — including themselves.

Suggest that your husband hang a punching bag in the garage so he can take his anger out there—safely.

Confidentially

TO WHY DOES HE DO IT? Probably because he's such a colossal liar he doesn't expect anyone to believe him. By dragging God's name in, he hopes to strengthen the story.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Hoffa Hearing Balked By Stuck Closet Door

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — The pre-trial hearing of Teamster President James R. Hoffa in U.S. District Court Wednesday was delayed by a balky closet door.

The stuck door defied the best efforts of a husky U.S. marshal, several bailiffs and numerous attorneys. While the government sent for a carpenter, Hoffa removed his left shoe and flailed away at the hinges.

Judge Frank Grey called a recess until the carpenter broke open the door.

The closet contained the defense attorneys' briefcases.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Hippy Hildas — Join Our Swing-Along

Teen-agers with hips past the yard-wide line, join our swing-along. Interested? On the telephone as you chat, swing to lose fat. A challenge is fun. Why not turn your ting-a-ling call into a swing session? All set? Hold the telephone receiver in your left hand... grab hold of a chair back with your right hand, swing right leg forward freely, knee straight... then swing back forcibly, again keeping knee straight. Hit the second swing to the rear, h-o-l-d. As you hold you contact the bustle of muscle padding the hip. Hold for six seconds. By holding the muscle taut you use the principle of isometric contraction.

Ida Jean Kain

There are two ways to execute the swing. You can bend forward at the waist, thus bending past a 45-degree angle as you swing rearward. Or you can swing against the resistance of opposing muscles. Keep knee straight, tense the leg muscles and let the rearward thrust be short, quick and taut.

AT FIRST blush, a quarter of a mile may seem like quite a swim. Try it, it's fun and slimming. After the 3-mile conditioning point from then on it should be a continuous quarter mile swim, using a variety of strokes. Swim one length using the crawl, then swim the back stroke on the return trip. Use the easy side-stroke for resting, and float awhile.

REPEAT a half dozen times with the right leg, then change over and swing with the left leg. Keep swinging. The young lady who provided this secret slimming system, told me she had swung a total of eight inches off her hips. Subtract 8 inches from a 42-inch hipline and you'll have 34-inch hips. Svelte!

Girls, anything that is fun takes the irksomeness out of exercise. Once you begin to see the slimming effects, your enthusiasm will keep you swinging happily. So long! Now, are you game to try something that will make you every inch a beauty? Join the 5-mile swim. You can get the rules at the pool where you swim. The first three miles are for conditioning. At each swim session you're to swim a quarter of a mile, but you can rest whenever you feel the need.
